Holiday Is Favorite Theme for Writers

Whenever the talk turns to Christmas books and stories, somebody's sure to mention Charles Dickens.

His "Christmas Carol," published in 1843, is synonymous with holiday conviviality, and its underlying theme stresses the spiritual truths and blessings of the Nativity.

"God bless us, every one," cried Tiny Tim Cratchit, and the cry still echoes.

While Dickens may be a word for Christmas, many another author has written of this religious festival and merry feast.

Among the best known examples may be scenes from children's literature.

Louisa May Alcott's "Little Women," published 1868, may seem old-fashioned in some ways, but girls today still rejoice in the story of Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy.

These fictional heroines come to life for their readers, and never more so than in the Christmas-season story that opens the book, when the March family gave up a festive breakfast for a poor family.

While they breakfasted on bread and milk, the girls felt they truly feasted, for they knew the joy of sharing.

Another old favorite is Kate Douglas Wiggin's "The Birds' Christmas Carol," of 1887.

Though better known as the author of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm," she wrote this brief but touching story of the Birds' invalid child, whose short life exemplified the principles of Christmas.

In the present day, the American author Truman Capote, who claims the invention of a new literary form, the non-fiction novel, has written of Christmas, too.

His "A Christmas Memory" a short story, appeared as a television drama in 1966.

There will be lots of fun and amusement and refreshments. Every one is invited to come and enjoy the fun.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

SINCEREST WISHES For a Merry Christmas

PEACE on Earth

Come, Follow Me

Long ago three Wise Men
Were gazing at a star
That glistened in the Heavens,
Outshining all by far.

And so the Wise Men pondered
What could its message be,
For it somehow seemed to beckon
And say, "Come, follow me!"

So they readied for a journey,
And chose their gifts so rare.
Then they climbed upon their camels,
And turned them toward the star.

Long days and nights they traveled
With trials along the way,
Until they came to Bethlehem
Where now the Christ Child lay.

And there the holy Magi
Knelt before this tiny King;
They gazed in adoration
While hearing angels sing.

And then along with shepherds
They learned the reason why
They were beckoned by a message
That came out of the sky.

And they gave it to the ages
So that all good men might be,
Just as joyfully rewarded
By the words, "Come, follow me!"

LaVaye E. Elder

Silent Night May the spirit of that night, on which the Saviour was born, shine upon you in this Christmas season.
Grateful thanks for your continued good will.

In Memoriam

In remembrance of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Ferguson during this Holiday Season.
The Family 12-21-1t

In loving memory of husband and Daddy, Bennett Harding, who passed away 7 years ago, Dec. 26, 1965
He had a smile for everyone as he walked along life's way.
And we take comfort of the
thought he is not gone,
He is just away.
Over the balcony of heaven, we know you watch passing moments of those you held
so dear.
The world is full of folks 'tis
true.
But daddy there was only one
like you.
God must have a lovely garden
for he takes only the best.
May the pleasure you miss in
life,
Be found in God's heaven of rest.
Sadly missed by wife, children and grandchildren. 12-21-1p
